Justice Chavez called the meeting to order at 9:35 am.

May 17 Statewide ADR Summit in Albuquerque

David Levin presented an overview of the May 17 Statewide ADR Summit. The Summit will focus on the most frequently used program which is Mediation. The NCSC Recommendations will be the frame for the discussions and plans. The recommendations and other research reports will be distributed as part of the Summit packet. The committee plans to distribute Pre and Post Test Questionnaires to determine what delegates learned from attending. There will be presentations followed by small breakout group discussions, and at several points Commissioners will summarize progress to date.

The participants from Ohio include: Milt Nuzum, is the person who has held the vision; Jacqueline Hagerott is the Supreme Court ADR Coordinator who assists courts in implementing programs; Judge Richard Altman: works in the courts and provides assistance to court staff.

The Planning Team will write a report with directives for where we go next.

The Commissioners had the opportunity to comment and present suggestions for improving the proposed program and processes.

Questions and Answers

1. Packet at the Summit will be distributed
2. Breakout groups: there will be 10 breakout groups after each presentation. Breakout groups will have 7-8 members, including a scribe and a facilitator.
3. Volunteers: there is a site staff of 3 so we don't need volunteers right now.

Following the formal meetings, Commissioners met to discuss their roles as facilitators, recorders, and subject matter experts.
